Shipping Transactions and Notes of Interest Along The Bay Front.

The steamer Tarpon, Capt. Barrow, arrived yesterday from St. Andrews and other points with 80 barrels of oysters and one hundred barrels of oysters. She will leave tonight at 8:30 o'clock for Mobile.

The smack Ruth Welles arrived yesterday to E. E. Saunders & Co., with 20,000 pounds of red snappers.

The smack Ariola arrived yesterday to the Warren Fish company with a large cargo of red snappers.

The British steamship St. Michael left port yesterday for Galveston, where she will take on additional cargo.

The steamship Manteo, Capt. McLaughlin, is scheduled to arrive here Monday morning from New Orleans and Mobile. She will bring a large consignment of miscellaneous freight from New Orleans.

The smacks Lottie S. Haskins and Minnie W. have taken on supplies and are ready to leave for the snapper banks.

Shipbuilding in Norway.
According to the statistics of the Norske Veritas, the vessels in course of construction in Norwegian yards on Jan. 1, consisted of forty-seven steamers and six sailing ships. The total gross tonnage of the steamers was about 30,560 tons, all being of steel with the exception of one small wooden boat. All the six sailers were of wood, measuring together 555 tons net. The total number is fifty-three, against ninety-one being built Jan. 1, 1908.

Iceberg in Path of Liners.
The Anchor Line steamship Calcutta, while bound from Glasgow to New York, passed an iceberg on Feb. 25, in latitude 45.40, longitude 48.06. The berg was about 150 feet high. Considerable field ice was also seen. The vessel had to be slowed down, which caused her to arrive late.—Philadelphia Record, March 2.

Port Facilities.
Horn Island Anchorage, Miss.—Vessels can pass over Horn Island bar with twenty-two and a half feet from the first of May until Sept. 15, and but twenty-one and a half feet for the rest of the year, owing to the prevalence of northerly winds. During the strong northerly winds the water falls about ten inches below mean low water. (From information furnished the branch hydrographic office, Feb. 25, 1909, by the secretary of the Pascagoula Pilot association.)

Key West, Fla.—The maximum depth of water that can be carried into this port is twenty-eight feet. Mean rise and fall of the tide 1.2 feet. (From information furnished the branch hydrographic office, Feb. 20, 1909, by the United States Army engineers' office, Jacksonville, Fla.)

Pascagoula, Miss.—The maximum depth of water in the main ship channel at mean low water is eighteen feet. (From information furnished the branch hydrographic office, Feb. 20, 1909, by the United States Army engineers' office, Mobile, Ala.)

Shipping Sales.
"Villequier," French iron steamer, (ex "Endymion"), 2309 tons gross, 1447 net, built and engined by Palmers' Co., Newcastle, in 1880, with engines 31 in. and 68 in. by 45-in. stroke, new boilers in 1896, owned by Mr. J. B. Deltest, Marseilles, was recently offered for sale by auction at Rouen at the upset price of 100,000 francs, at which figure she was sold.

"Claverly" and "Claveresk," Br. steel turret steamers, each 3829 tons gross, 2441 net, carrying 6600 tons d. w. on 21 ft. 9 in. draft, built and engined by Messrs. William Duxford & Sons, Sunderland, in 1907, with engines 24 in. and 68 in. by 45-in. stroke, have been sold by the mortgagees to Mr. A. Munro Sutherland, Newcastle, for 30,000 pounds sterling. These vessels cost about 42,000 pounds sterling each two years ago, and are the latest type of clearhold turrets.

"Colonie," French st. smtr., owned by the Chargeurs Reunis, Havre, is stated to have been sold for about 6,000 pounds sterling. She is 2805 tons gross, built in 1889, with engines 24 in. and 68 in. by 45-in. stroke, has been sold by the mortgagees to Mr. A. Munro Sutherland, Newcastle, for 30,000 pounds sterling. These vessels cost about 42,000 pounds sterling each two years ago, and are the latest type of clearhold turrets.

"Sacro Cuore di Gesù," Ital. iron hq., 1985 tons register, built by Messrs. Macfadden & Co., Port Glasgow, in 1874, has been sold at Bahia to a firm there.

The American bark "Homeward Bound," recently acquired by the Alaska Packers' association, San Francisco, has been renamed "Star of Holland."—Shipping Illustrated.

Church Notes

Ministers are respectfully requested to send to The Journal at once any change in the order of services at their respective churches. Notices for this column should reach The Journal not later than 5 p. m. on Saturday of each week.

Sacred Heart Church.
Services at Sacred Heart Church to-day will be as follows:
First mass, 7 a. m.; second mass, 9:30 a. m.
At the second mass Father Isadore will preach, his subject being the "Holy Eucharist."
At 7:30 tonight the closing services of the missionary exercises will be held.
During next week Father Isadore will lecture each night on some important point concerning the Catholic doctrine and will also answer questions from the question box. On Monday next his subject will be "Faith, What It Is, and What It Is Not."
The choir will be assisted by Prof. Seel's orchestra.
Miss Montanari will render a solo.

Prof. Henderson to Speak.
Prof. J. T. Henderson, of Bristol, Tenn.-Va., general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Southern Baptist convention, will speak at the First Baptist church of Pensacola Sunday morning, the 14th inst. Prof. Henderson, who is also president of the Bristol Female college, is a fine speaker, and very enthusiastic over the Laymen's movement. All are cordially invited to hear Prof. Henderson on that occasion.

A Unique Meeting.
On next Friday night, the 12th inst., there is to be a layman's rally at the Gadsden Street Methodist church. At this meeting the pastor and officers will try and get the attendance of all the male members of the church over sixteen years old. They are trying to bring everything to bear to meet this end.

The purpose of the meeting is ethical and social. It is a fact, that in all churches, the men are to a great extent strangers to each other. The ladies have their women's societies and a better exchange of feeling exists thereby. The men are dependent upon the Sunday services for acquaintanceship to a large extent, and a large per cent do not avail themselves of this help, hence, the purpose of the meeting mentioned. There will be a program rendered in the main auditorium, after which refreshments will be served in the annex, and a mingling together in social converse will be indulged in. Let every member who reads this be on hand.
